Product leader with 15+ years of experience driving product vision and strategy across B2C and B2B portfolios in the iGaming and esports industry. I build and lead high-performing product teams, own end-to-end product roadmaps, champion product improvements and launches into new markets, and improve methodologies and processes while mentoring teams to deliver exceptional results and drive growth.

EXPERIENCE

Chief Product Officer

Apr 2025 – Present

NDA (by Oddin.gg)

- Leading a team of Product Managers, Scrum teams, and designers across multiple products in the sports betting space.
- Integrated AI tools into daily workflows — using Perplexity and Gemini as research assistants, Claude, Cursor, and Antigravity for rapid prototyping, and Google AI Studio for experimentation.
- Leading an AI transformation across the product organization, targeting 80+% of code delivery through AI agents by end of Q2 2026, redefining how product teams scope, spec, and ship software
- Developing and executing the product vision and strategy across our B2B product, Odds Feed, Sportsbook iFrame, and Engagement Tools
- Building a culture of ownership, experimentation, and genuine human connection within the product organization.
- Driving cross-functional alignment between engineering, commercial, and operations teams.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- ✓ Implemented Product processes and drafted blueprint for a new sportsbook
- ✓ Fast hiring and strong team retention
- ✓ Closed 2 commercial deals from the demo of a product still pre-launch
